

GALA Exhibits features emerging and established artists through a series of exhibitions in temporarily available spaces and empty storefronts, in coordination with the City of Glendale and local property owners interested in promoting the arts.

GALA Exhibits is a curatorial project supported by the City of Glendale and the Glendale Arts & Culture Commission, with funding from the Urban Art Program.

An exhibition of artwork by Srboohie Abajian and Dori Atlantis & Karen Frimkess Wolff

At 131 Maryland Avenue in Glendale

Reception, Sunday March 15, 4-7 p.m.

On view through March 27, 2015

For more information, visit: www.gala-exhibits.org

For media inquiries, contact:

Alaine Azcona | alaine@azconacommunications.com | (323) 935-4537

Srboohie Abajian

Untitled Installation

2015

acrylic and ink on paper
variable dimensions

www.srboohie.com

Abajian continues her conversation with the downtown Glendale community by exhibiting large-scale drawings from the series "All Roads Lead to People." These images express our need for human interaction and compassion.

Dori Atlantis & Karen Frimkess Wolff

Untitled Installation

2015

mixed media
variable dimensions

Atlantis & Wolff have collaborated on a new site-specific installations that investigates landscape and environmental ideas in the form of a sculptural tableau.

www.doriatlantis.com

www.karenfrimkesswolff.com